COUNCIL MAY HAVE SYSTEM OVERHAULED

Parts of Fire Apparatus in Bad Condition, and Much Needs Repairs

WILL GET EXPERT HERE

The fire system in Charleroi will in all probability be given a general overhauling in the near future, as the result of action taken by council last night, to have the borough clerk, Ira L. Nickeson, write to Mr. Loomis, at Pittsburgh, the man who installed the apparatus, requesting him to come here to make an inspection and if necessary to conduct a general overhauling of the system. The clock which is in connection with the fire system is in bad shape, beside other parts, which are out of order.

President Frew was in the chair and other councilmen present were J. K. Hein, C. O. Frye, and Oscar Linn. Solicitor D. M. McCloskey presented a bill for attorney's fees of $162.90 the amount due for himself, and Carl E. Gibson, in the suit against the Charleroi Water company. The bill was ordered paid.

The street committee reported that on account of the snow they were unable to examine the paving on Lincoln avenue between First and Second streets, and consequently could not make any report. The contractors will receive $200 of the amount still due, 10 per cent to be held back.

The garbage question came up for discussion, there having been a number of complaints received about the way in which the garbage was being handled. No action was taken.

It was agreed to purchase a tax and municipal lien book. The real estate committee was given power to act in the matter of removing a small shed on the borough building, so that the erection of the Pfieghardt block would not be interfered with.

Action was taken thanking the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company for the interest that had been taken in the fire department, and for the blowing of the plate glass whistle as an alarm.

The matter of having the walls in the engine room of the borough building toned up was placed in the hands of the real estate committee for action. President Frew was requested to serve in the various committees left vacant by the resignation of President Piersol.

A bill was presented by G. R. Speaks, for medical services rendered by Dr. J. B. Barth, after Mr. Speaks had been struck by a bobbed on Sixth street, and injured. The matter was placed in the hands of the accounts and claims committee for investigation.

The treasurer's report for the month of December was read and accepted as follows:

Receipts for month.....	$4,353.83
Disbursements.....	3,712.18

Balance.....	$673.65
Overdrawn from last balance.....	201.11

Balance in treasury.....	$472.54
--------------------------	----------

The report of Burgess Risbeck for the month of January showed that there had been $41.30 in fines assessed, of which $28.30 had been paid, there being $13.00 in time served.

Tax Collector Mathias reported that for January taxes he had turned over to the treasurer $1,574.62. Ex-Tax Collector Parsois reported that for

JUDGE M'ILVAINE ELUCIDATES LEGAL QUESTIONS RAISED

Hands Down Another Opinion Upon Brewery License Matters.

EXTENDS TIME FOR DECREE

Yesterday the Crescent brewery at Washington filed a withdrawal of its license application and the Washington brewing company has its application for withdrawal all ready to file. The Star brewery it is stated is likely to follow the same action today. These in connection with the Acme brewery at Bentleyville and the Independent brewery at Monongahela are the ones which were refused county license by Judge J. A. McIlvaine last week, and the action is presumably made for the purpose of taking out a State license.

In accordance with the informal rehearing given the three Washington breweries Saturday Judge McIlvaine has given another written opinion replying at length to each of the points made by the brewery attorneys for a reverse of his decree. The court refuses any further rehearing and gives the applicants until the 24th of this month to withdraw their applications. If this is not done the decree will be final refusing the licenses and the applicants will be barred from a State license by reason of this refusal.

CRIMINAL COURT BEGINS ITS GRIND

Takes up the Hearing of Cases, Five Persons will be Tried for Homicide

Criminal court convened at Washington yesterday before both Judges McIlvaine and Taylor. The grand jury also reconvened, not having finished its business last week. There are six homicide cases to come before the courts, or five rather, as the case of Thomas Kinney for the murder of Wm. Adams of Charleroi has been continued to the May term of court. After the opening of court yesterday a number of cases were disposed of, and a long list was on the calendar for today.

LONG LOOKED FOR COMES AT LAST

Beginning today and continuing until Saturday, February 26 at 10 p. m. the Mail and Mirror, through its contest department announces the best special vote offer of the contest.

This offer is one whereby each and every candidate who turns in $25 on subscriptions will be given a special ballot good for 40,000 votes. One of these ballots will be given for every $25 turned in on subscriptions and is in addition to the regular scale.

THE BEST OFFER.

This is POSITIVELY the best offer of extra votes that will be made during the contest. When we say BEST, it is the BEST with a big "B." There will be no better subscription offers. Do not wait expecting them. They will not be made.

Turn in your subscriptions as you receive them. We keep a record of them and when you have $25 to your credit we will issue you the forty thousand extra ballot. We issue you the regular vote ballot on each subscription as you turn them in to the contest department.

Remember that this offer includes all subscriptions from four months up to five years. It also includes both old and new subscribers who make payments to you. Call on all of your friends who have promised to help you. This is your opportunity to get all your promises in NOW.

COMPETITIVE BALLOTS.

Two offers in one. With the forty thousand extra votes we are going to give "Three Competitive Ballots," the first capital ballot is good for 100,000 votes, the second one is good for 75,000 votes, the third one is good for 50,000 votes.

HOW THEY WILL BE AWARDED.

The contestant securing and turning in on subscriptions to the Mail or Mirror the greatest amount of money will be awarded the first capital ballot good for 100,000 votes. The contestant securing and turning in on subscriptions the next largest amount of money will be awarded the second capital ballot good for 75,000 votes and the third contestant will be given a ballot good for 50,000 votes.

This offer will be known as "The Competitive Period" and will start today and end Saturday night February 26th 10 p. m.

OPPORTUNITY FOR NEW ENTRIES.

If you have not entered the contest, do so today, or if you are at the bottom of the list get busy now and win one or more of the 40,000 special ballots and you will also be in the running for one of the competitive ballots. Get in the race and work hard for that 100,000 ballot and "cinch" the Reo Car.

Rev. J. H. Palmer, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church here, now located in Leechburg, arrived in Charleroi yesterday to make arrangements for moving his family to Leechburg. The members of the local church are arranging a reception for Rev. Palmer to be held on Thursday evening of this week.

Edgar Pearson is transacting business and visiting friends today in Pittsburgh.

The winner of these ballots will not be announced until the close of the contest, but will be mailed direct to the lucky candidates. Work for yearly and long time subscriptions during this period harder than you have ever worked before.

Remember that this is the best offer that will be made during the contest.

SPECIAL OFFERS.

In today's issue the following special offers are announced and will be in effect during the dates as outlined below.

FEB. 14 TO FEB. 26 AT 10 P. M.

The special offer between the dates of Feb. 14 to Feb. 26 inclusive. Each and every candidate turning in $25 on subscription, either new or old, will be given an extra ballot good for 40,000 votes and all money will count on the "Three Competitive Ballots." The First Ballot is good for 100,000 votes, the second one is good for 75,000 votes and the third will be good for 50,000 votes. These ballots will be given over and above the regular scale.

FEB. 28 TO MARCH 5 INCLUSIVE.

The special vote between the dates of Feb. 28 and March 5, 25,000 extra with every $25 over and above the regular scale turned in on subscriptions.

MARCH 7 TO MARCH 12 INCLUSIVE.

The special vote between these dates will be 15,000 extra votes over and above the regular scale. MARCH 14 TO MARCH 19 INCLUSIVE.

This will be the last offer during the contest. An extra ballot of 5,000 votes will be given with every $25 turned in. This is positively the last offer of any kind that will be made during the contest.

MARCH 21 TO MARCH 26.

No offers of any kind, just the regular scale on old and new subscribers.

BE SURE OF THE DATES.

By studying the dates you will see where your work will count the most on the special offers. Of course the advantage is the same for all, but each one can feel themselves individually benefited.

When you ask for a subscription you can show your friends how much more they can help you now than they can at a later date.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

Do not be mistaken when securing new subscriptions. An old subscriber is one that is receiving the paper through his newsdealer or on the Mail Publishing Co's mailing list. The slips will be verified each day and all mistakes will be rectified. Transferring subscriptions from one member of the family to another will not count as a new subscriber.

EVEN COST OF FUNERAL CAB HIRE BOOSTED

Man Can't Even Die Without Extra Expense Now as Result of Latest Move.

LOWEST PRICE $3.00 PER

Even the cost of dying has been raised in this vicinity. It isn't the doctors, whom people think make a fortune every trip, and it isn't the undertakers who charge enough; it's the liverymen—the fellows who furnish transportation for one's final journey and the mournful procession of friends when you shuffle off this mortal coil. The liverymen got together recently and in regular Standard Oil fashion boosted the prices for carriages so that now you have to pay $1.00 or $2.00 more than previously for each hearse or carriage.

The highest price listed on the card which has been circulated is for a trip to Beallsville from Charleroi—$9.00 per. And that's in advance except when the carriages are hired by the undertakers, whom the liverymen sort of trust. The lowest price is for a carriage to the depot, $3.00, and this has to be in the forenoon. If the carriage is desired in the afternoon it costs $4.00.

The prices vary according to the distance of the haul. That means if you want to be planted in the Charleroi cemetery it will not cost more than $5.00 per carriage unless there are some other technicalities that enter into the agreement, while if you and your mournful friends have to be transported to a much greater distance the insurance left your friends will have to be drawn upon to a greater degree.

The Charleroi liverymen are all in the trust. The limit to one carriage is four persons. The liverymen conscientiously make one concession; that is they will pay the bridge toll and ferryage—unless the carriage is empty.

INDICATIONS FOR SMALL VOTE HERE

Quietness Prevails at the Various Voting Precincts in the Borough

Election is rather quiet today, and indications are that there will be a small vote polled in the contests for the various borough offices.

There is considerable interest centering in the fight for justice of the peace and each candidate is out working hard for recognition. A close vote is predicted.

For the other offices of council, and school board there is somewhat of a fight on, and especially for school board is the contest waging a trifle warm.

INCREASING DEMAND FOR FARM LANDS

Many People Prefer County Sites to Town or City Real Estate

POULTRY RAISING POPULAR

The desirability of farm land in this section at the present time is most noticeable, and the increase in demand has been instrumental in boosting the values. There is more inquiry for farms than for town real estate of a corresponding value. A farm is sure of a quick sale in this territory when placed on the market providing the price asked is not out of reach of the ordinary individual.

To prove this condition may be cited the instance of a North Charleroi man who recently had some country property to dispose of. He advertised and the numerous inquiries that followed kept him busy.

In this county farm land is of more value than almost any of the surrounding counties unless it be Greene, because of the absence of the destructive coke ovens. The undermining of the land for coal has had its bad effects upon the farms, but even this has apparently not detracted much from the seeming value. The trend of the people is to get into the open where they feel more free. The raising of poultry is claiming the attention of many Charleroi people but there is not room enough in the town to raise chickens. The raising of live stock does not seem to be as profitable as farming and fruit growing in this district and consequently the farms are becoming more and more depopulated of cattle, sheep and hogs.

It has been argued that Pennsylvania furnishes as good farm land as any Western State and this is conclusively proved by some of the farmers residing in the neighborhood. This fact has had its effect upon the boosting of the values and increasing the demand for the farm property.

Women Practice Voting.

Under direction of the W. C. T. U. the women of Bellevue, Avalon and West View, in Allegheny county, will have a practice vote today. For this purpose a hall has been secured, pulling booths erected according to regulation style, election officers appointed, and a quantity of specimen ballots secured. Over 1,000 notices have been sent out to the women of the community to turn out and vote for the local candidates to be elected today.

By means of this "practice vote" the women of that community will have an opportunity to get an insight into the electorate franchise from which they are debarred by reason of their sex. If enough of the women turn out to make a fair comparison, it will be interesting to note the result of this mock election. The belief is that a higher degree of intelligence will be exercised in the choice of the local officials than will be shown at the real election.

Rather Late

For so large a beneficiary of the protective tariff as Andrew Carnegie has been, his conversion to the tariff-revenue-only theory is somewhat amazing. Particularly is this true when all of Mr. Carnegie's immense fortune which enables him to give away many millions each year in philanthropic projects cut of the golden stream that flows annually into his coffers, was created solely by the tariff monopoly of which he was virtually at one time the sole possessor. But for the protective tariff the iron and steel industry could never have developed on the gigantic scale it has attained, nor would the great profits have been realized but for the special privileges conferred upon the industry by the same means.

Notwithstanding the protective tariff has been the means of colossal fortunes, and the iron and steel industry has become more or less of a monopoly, the protective tariff is an economic benefit, if the quickening of progress and advancement is the correct theory in the destiny of the human race. But for this artificial stimulation by the tariff the iron and steel industry, as well as many others, could never have developed to the magnitude nor in the space of time it did. With no protection European manufacturers had it within their power to break down all possible competition in this country. Without this development the millions of dollars and the vast army of workmen in the big industries would never have been employed.

The economic question involved in the tariff is whether it was better for this country to drift along the lines pursued by Oriental countries—China and India for example—in the development of natural resources, or apply modern and artificial methods to quicken and stimulate development. As a penalty for the protective tariff we have gigantic monopolies and colossal fortunes. As a recompense we have employment at good wages for millions of workmen who would otherwise be eking out a precarious existence from the soil with no markets for their products. The protective tariff is more than evenly balanced in the economic scale for the betterment of this country.

Amend the Law.

While it has been demonstrated that it is a serious proposition to get a local option law passed by the legislature of this State, which is quite likely to require a constitutional amendment before it could become effective, it is quite possible to further regulate and restrict the liquor traffic. This can be done by amendments to the Brooks law, some of the most serious defects of which are pointed out by Judge J. A. McIlvaine, in an opinion handed down in the rehearing of the brewery cases at Washington Saturday. Judge McIlvaine says:

If we are wrong in regard to the illegality of sales made by agents, such as have been made by the agents of these three applicants and the higher courts will so hold, then it behooves those who are in favor of the restriction and regulation rather than prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquor to seek to have the Brooks law reinforced by additional legislation:

First—There should be an act which should prohibit the court of quarter sessions from granting a license to brewers and distillers, which would enable them to sell to consumers, but their entire trade should be done under a license such as is now granted by the State treasurer, that is, they should only be allowed to sell to dealers licensed by the court of quarter sessions.

Second—An act should be passed limiting the sale by wholesale dealers to other dealers licensed by the court and to consumers that should apply at the place of business described in their license, and they should be prohibited from soliciting trade through agents from individual consumers and the minimum quantity which they could sell to any individual consumer should be enlarged. Judge Paxson in Nordstrom's appeal, makes use of this language:

"While it is a delicate matter to criticize the act of a co-ordinate department of the government we must be permitted to say that in our judgment the law in regard to wholesale licenses contains some very serious defects. We need to refer to but one, the provision that wholesale dealers may sell by the quart. It seems a perversion of terms to call a person who sells liquor by the quart a wholesale dealer. It is practically a retail traffic and of the worst character."

Third—An act should be passed prohibiting all clubs, associations or societies of whatever kind from selling or distributing by gift or otherwise among their members vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors, without first obtaining a license from the court of quarter sessions so to do, as provided in the act of Assembly which regulates the granting of retail licenses.

To this should be added an increase in the price of licenses to make them average at least $1,000. This is neither abnormally high nor prohibitive, inasmuch as the regulations restricting the traffic make the privilege more or less monopolistic. One thousand dollars for a business privilege that nets $12,000 to $25,000 a year profits is an exceedingly modest fee. Other States impose $1,000 for licenses, and such a fee would materially help out in reimbursing the county for the expenses entailed by reason of the evils of the traffic.

Beallsville.

Mrs. W. B. Flick entertained a number of friends at her home on Tuesday complimentary to Mrs. Smith Frye of Charleroi, who is a guest at the H. H. Young home.

J. Girard of Ohio is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Martindell of near Beallsville.

One of the severest snow storms of the winter struck this section last Friday and continued all Friday night. On Saturday some of the drifts were to a depth of 4 feet, making travel very hard, especially on the country roads. John Miller of Kansas City, Mo. who has been a guest of his sister, Mrs. S. C. Cole, and other relatives and friends in the county, for the past four weeks has returned to his western home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves have returned to their home near Beallsville, after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Graves of Monongahela. Revival service commenced at the Beallsville M. E. church on Sunday evening and will continue indefinitely. The services are in charge of the pastor, the Rev. O. B. Patterson,

ELECTRIC SPARKS

We hope that Teddy, Jr. gets a good match. He seems to be the only quiet member of the family, besides Mrs. Roosevelt.

The county seat breweries are not desirous of State licenses, because their trade then would be practically nothing. Clubs in Washington will have to get their yellow joy water from some other climate, a fact due to make the county seat beersters unhappy.

It isn't fashion anymore to build air castles. Airships are the rage now.

Many towns gain more notoriety because Mrs. Guinness has never been found there, Doc Cook is not in hiding there, and because they are not trying to get the Jeffries-Johnson fight, than many other towns are through their vain attempts to become noted.

An Embarrassing Moment.

The author of "Collections and Recollections" relates a personal experience of having said a "thing one would rather have left unsaid." Even after the lapse of twenty years, he adds, the recollection of the sensations of the moment turns him hot with chagrin.

A remarkably pompous clergyman, a diocesan inspector of schools, once showed me a theme on a Scriptural subject written by a girl who was trying to pass from the rank of a pupil teacher to the rank of schoolmistress. The theme was full of absurd mistakes, over which the inspector laughed uproariously.

"Well, what do you think of that?" he inquired when I handed back the paper.

"Oh," said I in perfectly good faith, "the mistakes are bad enough, but the writing is far worse. It really is a disgrace."

"The writing? What, my writing?" said the inspector. "I copied the theme out myself."

"Old Hickory."

The following story is told of how General Andrew Jackson got his title of "Old Hickory." Captain William Allen, who was a near neighbor of the general, messed with him during the Creek war. During the campaign the soldiers were moving rapidly to surprise the Indians and were without tents. A cold March wind came on, mingled with sleet, which lasted for several days. General Jackson got a severe cold, but did not complain, as he tried to sleep in a muddy bottom among his half frozen soldiers. Captain Allen and his brother, John, cut down a stout hickory tree, peeled off the bark and made a covering for the general, who was with difficulty persuaded to crawl under it. The next morning a drunken citizen entered the camp and, seeing the tent, kicked it over. As Jackson crawled from the ruins the toper cried: "Hello, Old Hickory! Come out of your bark and jine us in a drink."—Detroit News.

WOLVES AS ACTORS IN DANIEL BOONE

If wild animal training is not an actual "calling" it has many of the elements of irresistibility often attributed to vocations of educational, didactical or philanthropic nature. Last year when Mr. L. W. Clinton now playing the part of Daniel Boone was terribly mangled in an attack by the wolf Bub carried by the company, he said he would probably return to the company as soon as he was able. Though warned by the doctors at the hospital, Mr. Clinton insisted on returning to his company less than ten days after he had been torn by the "raw" wolf Bub. On last Monday night he fainted after having successfully performed with his pack of wolves. Again entering the cage Wednesday Mr. Clinton made a desperate effort to "break" the wolf which tore him, but his weak condition began to tell on him before he had finished and it was only the quick work of the other members of the company prevented him from being torn the second time.

These wolves will be seen with "Daniel Boone on the Trail" at the Coyle Theatre next Thursday evening.

THE NEW MASSAGE

A Novel Plan that has Proven
Its Worth Over and Over Again.

Beauty hints are always welcome reading, because women of today know that what we formerly called the marks of age, really are indications of complexions neglected. Massage and high grade skin foods and creams have worked a revolution in this respect. And no massage itself has been revolutionized by the invention of the Harlan Beauty Cup, which is a mechanical appliance working upon a gentle vacuum system, and has a marvelously beneficial effect by cleansing the pores and manipulating the skin textures more evenly and better than is possible by hand.

When it is stated that the manufacturers of the Beauty Cup are also the makers of Crown Cream, users of that excellent face cream will understand why implicit confidence can be placed in any statement concerning the other toilet device. Crown Cream is literally without a rival, and it differs from other preparations for the reason that its beautifying powers are so great, that many women use it without any massage whatever. Used in connection with the Beauty Cup, however, the effects produced are not only highly pleasing, but very quickly secured. Crown Cream is sold by every dealer everywhere, for 50c a jar, and the price of the Beauty Cup is also half a dollar. If your dealer does not keep these goods they will be sent prepaid by the Harlan Mfg. Co., Toledo, Ohio, on receipt of the price. Give your dealer's name in writing to the company.

A Large Boulder Fell in Front of a Passenger Train Going at Fifty Miles an Hour.

And it was almost miraculous that everyone of the two hundred passengers were not crushed to death.

When you read such startling headlines in the daily paper did you ever stop to think how many lives are being crushed out daily by stones in the bladders of hundreds of human beings because no remedy was ever known to medical science that would remove them until bloodline was discovered; and since bloodline has been found to be a specific for this terrible affliction, it has had the most phenomenal sale throughout the East and West, of any remedy ever known. Thousands of bottles having been sold in a single day in many of the large cities.

If you are suffering with stone in the bladder, aching pains over hips, backache, sediment or deposit in urine, irritation of the bladder, pain in urinating, rheumatism, uric acid in the blood, sudden stoppage of the urine, highly colored or milky white urine, pass blood or mucous in urine, retention of urine, straining after urinating, thick or sluggish urine, cystitis inflammation of bladder, catarrh of bladder, or bowels, puffiness under eyes, voracious appetite, thirst, gall stones, gravel, pain in urethra, swollen ankle, dimmed vision, specks before the eyes, scanty urine, frequent calls, mouth dry, biliousness, dribbling, lumbago, weakness, loss of flesh, irregular heart action, ulceration of the bladder, skin pale, waxy and dry, bad odor of perspiration, don't delay, but send to your druggist and get a bottle of bloodline at once; if he does not keep bloodline, you can secure a six weeks' treatment, six bottles, for $2.50 or single bottles 50c, trial bottle and booklet 10c, from The Bloodline Laboratories, Boston, Mass.

It cures by drawing all germ life and poisons to the surface of the skin and destroying them leaving the skin clean and healthy. Piper Bros.

As usual, the children were very hungry and were waiting patiently for father to fill the plates and pass them around. Father, however, was busily engaged in conversation and missed little Marion. CURES REMOVE DOUBT ABOUT ECZEMA CURE

Read What Your Druggist Says About Oil of Wintergreen

For several years we have announced, with our recommendation, that we had found a positive cure for eczema; a simple skin wash, oil of wintergreen compounded with other healing ingredients.

Yet we know there are people right in this town who have eczema, and still have never tried this remedy.

We have, therefore, arranged with the D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special offer of a trial bottle at 25 cents instead of the $1.00 bottle as regularly sold. We offer this trial bottle with our recommendation and assurance that just as soon as the patient washes his itching skin, this mild liquid will take the itch away instantly.

Where the Hippopotamus Lurks. Herds of hippopotamuses are not found everywhere in central Africa. They stick to the swampy shores overgrown with the papyrus plant, which affords them cover by day when they come out to rest. At night they feed on land, sometimes walking long distances away from the lake or river in search of palatable herbs. The hippopotamus is a great eater. A cow hippopotamus stays with her calf until the young one gets strong enough to walk and swim.—Exchange.

Women Practice Voting.

Under direction of the W. C. T. U. the women of Bellevue, Avalon and West View, in Allegheny county, will have a practice vote today. For this purpose a hall has been secured, polling booths erected according to regulation style, election officers appointed, and a quantity of specimen ballots secured. Over 1,000 notices have been sent out to the women of the community to turn out and vote for the local candidates to be elected today.

By means of this "practice vote" the women of that community will have an opportunity to get an insight into the electorate franchise from which they are debarred by reason of their sex. If enough of the women turn out to make a fair comparison, it will be interesting to note the result of this mock election. The belief is that a higher degree of intelligence will be exercised in the choice of the local officials than will be shown at the real election.

Rather Late

For so large a beneficiary of the protective tariff as Andrew Carnegie has been, his conversion to the tariff-revenue-only theory is somewhat amazing. Particularly is this true when all of Mr. Carnegie's immense fortune which enables him to give away many millions each year in philanthropic projects cut of the golden stream that flows annually into his coffers, was created solely by the tariff monopoly of which he was virtually at one time the sole possessor. But for the protective tariff the iron and steel industry could never have developed on the gigantic scale it has attained, nor would the great profits have been realized but for the special privileges conferred upon the industry by the same means.

Notwithstanding the protective tariff has been the means of colossal fortunes, and the iron and steel industry has become more or less of a monopoly, the protective tariff is an economic benefit, if the quickening of progress and advancement is the correct theory in the destiny of the human race. But for this artificial stimulation by the tariff the iron and steel industry, as well as many others, could never have developed to the magnitude nor in the space of time it did. With no protection European manufacturers had it within their power to break down all possible competition in this country. Without this development the millions of dollars and the vast army of workmen in the big industries would never have been employed.

The economic question involved in the tariff is whether it was better for this country to drift along the lines pursued by Oriental countries—China and India for example—in the development of natural resources, or apply modern and artificial methods to quicken and stimulate development. As a penalty for the protective tariff we have gigantic monopolies and colossal fortunes. As a recompense we have employment at good wages for millions of workmen who would otherwise be eking out a precarious existence from the soil with no markets for their products. The protective tariff is more than evenly balanced in the economic scale for the betterment of this country.

Amend the Law.

While it has been demonstrated that it is a serious proposition to get a local option law passed by the Legislature of this State, which is quite likely to require a constitutional amendment before it could become effective, it is quite possible to further regulate and restrict the liquor traffic. This can be done by amendments to the Brooks law, some of the most serious defects of which are pointed out by Judge J. A. McIlvaine, in an opinion handed down in the rehearing of the brewery cases at Washington Saturday. Judge McIlvaine says:

If we are wrong in regard to the illegality of sales made by agents, such as have been made by the agents of these three applicants and the higher courts will so hold, then it behooves those who are in favor of the restriction and regulation rather than prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquor to seek to have the Brooks law reinforced by additional legislation:

First—There should be an act which should prohibit the court of quarter sessions from granting a license to brewers and distillers, which would enable them to sell to consumers, but their entire trade should be done under a license such as is now granted by the State treasurer, that is, they should only be allowed to sell to dealers licensed by the court of quarter sessions.

Second—An act should be passed limiting the sale by wholesale dealers to other dealers licensed by the court and to consumers that should apply at the place of business described in their license, and they should be prohibited from soliciting trade through agents from individual consumers and the minimum quantity which they could sell to any individual consumer should be enlarged. Judge Paxson in Nordstrom's appeal, makes use of this language:

"While it is a delicate matter to criticize the act of a co-ordinate department of the government we must be permitted to say that in our judgment the law in regard to wholesale licenses contains some very serious defects. We need to refer to but one, the provision that wholesale dealers may sell by the quart. It seems a perversion of terms to call a person who sells liquor by the quart a wholesale dealer. It is practically a retail trade and of the worst character."

Third—An act should be passed prohibiting all clubs, associations or societies of whatsoever kind from selling or distributing by gift or otherwise among their members vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors, without first obtaining a license from the court of quarter sessions so to do, as provided in the act of Assembly which regulates the granting of retail licenses.

To this should be added an increase in the price of licenses to make them average at least $1,000. This is neither abnormally high nor prohibitive, inasmuch as the regulations restricting the traffic make the privilege more or less monopolistic. One thousand dollars for a business privilege that nets $12,000 to $25,000 a year profits is an exceedingly modest fee. Other States impose $1,000 for licenses, and such a fee would materially help out in reimbursing the country for the expenses entailed by reason of the evils of the traffic.

Beallsville.

Mrs. W. B. Flick entertained a number of friends at her home on Tuesday complimentary to Mrs. Smith Frye of Charleroi, who is a guest at the H. H. Young home.

J. Girard of Ohio is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Martindell of near Beallsville.

Miss Anna Craven, who has been a guest of her sister, Miss Mollie Craven, and the Misses Lulu and Roberta Trew of Charleroi, for the past few days, returned to her home at this place, this week.

One of the severest snow storms of the winter struck this section last Friday and continued all Friday night. On Saturday some of the drifts were to a depth of 4 feet, making travel very hard, especially on the country roads. The mail carriers of this section experienced much difficulty in covering their entire routes.

John Miller of Kansas City, Mo., who has been a guest of his sister, Mrs. S. C. Cole, and other relatives and friends in the county, for the past four weeks has returned to his western home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves have returned to their home near Beallsville, after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Graves of Monongahela.

Revival service commenced at the Beallsville M. E. church on Sunday evening and will continue indefinitely. The services are in charge of the pastor, the Rev. O. B. Patterson.

We hope that Teddy, Jr. gets a good match. He seems to be the only quiet member of the family, besides Mrs. Roosevelt.

The county seat breweries are not desirous of State licenses, because their trade then would be practically nothing. Clubs in Washington will have to get their yellow joy water from some other climate, a fact due to make the county seat beersteins unhappy.

It isn't fashion anymore to build air castles. Airships are the rage now. Slipping and tripping, you see a car near. Promptly you hike down the ice-coated street. Then just as you do a particularly brilliant stunt sliding on your ear, some idiot yells, "That's right, wave your feet." Then with green air surrounding you and a big bump on your right gable you slip back home to burn good coal.

Many towns gain more notoriety because Mrs. Guinness has never been found there, Doc Cook is not in hiding there, and because they are not trying to get the Jeffries-Johnson fight, than many other towns are through their vain attempts to become noted.

The reason the reformers do not accomplish more is because they want so many different kinds of reform.

There must be a deal of borrowing going on in the Senate for there are only eighty-three cork screws to ninety-two Senators—Exchange.

Aeromania would be, then, we suppose, the crazy desire to fly.

The burglars who are equal to the task of carrying off a safe, have somewhat of a right to feel that they have earned a part of what they get.

There is little doubt but that the groundhog is making good, and it's the toughest that he has in stock that he's giving us.

"Drink Union Beer" says the Union Labor Journal. Much better advice would be to drink no beer. The most eminent medical authorities in the world now agree that beer is a poison which injures every human being who imbibes it—Washington Reporter.

An Embarrassing Moment.

The author of "Collections and Recollections" relates a personal experience of having said a "thing one would rather have left unsaid." Even after the lapse of twenty years, he adds, the recollection of the sensations of the moment turns him hot with chagrin.

A remarkably pompous clergyman, a diocesan inspector of schools, once showed me a theme on a Scriptural subject written by a girl who was trying to pass from the rank of a pupil teacher to the rank of schoolmistress. The theme was full of absurd mistakes, over which the inspector laughed uproariously.

"Well, what do you think of that?" he inquired when I handed back the paper.

"Oh," said I in perfectly good faith, "the mistakes are bad enough, but the writing is far worse. It really is a disgrace."

"The writing? What, my writing?" said the inspector. "I copied the theme out myself."

"Old Hickory."

The following story is told of how General Andrew Jackson got his title of "Old Hickory." Captain William Allen, who was a near neighbor of the general, messed with him during the Creek war. During the campaign the soldiers were moving rapidly to surprise the Indians and were without tents. A cold March wind came on, mingled with sleet, which lasted for several days. General Jackson got a severe cold, but did not complain, as he tried to sleep in a muddy bottom among his half frozen soldiers. Captain Allen and his brother, John, cut down a stout hickory tree, peeled off the bark and made a covering for the general, who was with difficulty persuaded to crawl under it. The next morning a drunken citizen entered the camp and, seeing the tent, kicked it over. As Jackson crawled from the ruins the toper cried: "Hello, Old Hickory! Come out of your bark and jine us in a drink."—Detroit News.

WOLVES AS ACTORS
IN DANIEL BOONE

If wild animal training is not an actual "calling" it has many of the elements of irresistibility often attributed to vocations of educational, didactical or philanthropic nature. Last year when Mr. L. W. Clinton now playing the part of Daniel Boone was terribly mangled in an attack by the wolf Bob carried by the company, he said he would probably return to the company as soon as he was able. Though warned by the doctors at the hospital, Mr. Clinton insisted on returning to his company less than ten days after he had been torn by the "raw" wolf Bob. On last Monday night he fainted after having successfully performed with his pack of wolves. Again entering the cage Wednesday Mr. Clinton made a desperate effort to "break" the wolf which tore him, but his weak condition began to tell on him before he had finished and it was only the quick work of the other members of the company prevented him from being torn the second time.

These wolves will be seen with "Daniel Boone on the Trail" at the Coyle Theatre next Thursday evening.

Massage and high grade skin foods and creams have worked a revolution in this respect. And no massage itself has been revolutionized by the invention of the Harlan Beauty Cup, which is a mechanical appliance working upon a gentle vacuum system, and has a marvelously beneficial effect by cleansing the pores and manipulating the skin textures more evenly and better than is possible by hand.

When it is stated that the manufacturers of the Beauty Cup are also the makers of Crown Cream, users of that excellent face cream will understand why implicit confidence can be placed in any statement concerning the other toilet device. Crown Cream is literally without a rival, and it differs from other preparations for the reason that its beautifying powers are so great, that many women use it without any massage whatever. Used in connection with the Beauty Cup, however, the effects produced are not only highly pleasing, but very quickly secured. Crown Cream is sold by every dealer everywhere, for 50c a jar, and the price of the Beauty Cup is also half a dollar. If your dealer does not keep these goods they will be sent prepaid by the Harlan Mfg. Co., Toledo, Ohio, on receipt of the price. Give your dealer's name in writing to the company.

A Large Boulder Fell in Front of a Passenger Train Going at Fifty Miles an Hour.

And it was almost miraculous that everyone of the two hundred passengers were not crushed to death.

When you read such startling headlines in the daily paper did you ever stop to think how many lives are being crushed out daily by stones in the bladders of hundreds of human beings because no remedy was ever known to medical science that would remove them until bloodline was discovered, and since bloodline has been found to be a specific for this terrible affliction, it has had the most phenomenal sale throughout the East and West, of any remedy ever known. Thousands of bottles having been sold in a single day in many of the large cities.

If you are suffering with stone in the bladder, aching pains over hips, backache, sediment or deposit in urine, irritation of the bladder, pain in urinating, rheumatism, uric acid in the blood, sudden stoppage of the urine, highly colored or milky white urine, pass blood or mucous in urine, retention of urine, straining after urinating, thick or sluggish urine, cystitis inflammation of bladder, catarrh of bladder, or bowels, puffiness under eyes, voracious appetite, thirst, gall stones, gravel, pain in urethra, swollen ankle, dimmed vision, specks before the eyes, scanty urine, frequent calls, mouth dry, biliousness, dribbling, lumbago, weakness, loss of flesh, irregular heart action, ulceration of the bladder, skin pale, waxy and dry, bad odor of perspiration, don't delay, but send to your druggist and get a bottle of bloodline at once; if he does not keep bloodline, you can secure a six weeks' treatment, six bottles, for $2.50 or single bottles 50c, trial bottle and booklet 10c, from The Bloodline Laboratories, Boston, Mass.

We will give you a booklet on skin disease and explain to you how you can be cured in your own home by this clean simple remedy. ZEMO is pleasant to use and can be used freely on infants. It cures by drawing all germ life and poisons to the surface of the skin and destroying them leaving the skin clean and healthy. Piper Bros.

As usual, the children were very hungry and were waiting patiently for father to fill the plates and pass them around. Father, however, was busily engaged in conversation and missed little Marion. CURES REMOVE DOUBT ABOUT ECZEMA CURE

Read What Your Druggist Says About Oil of Wintergreen

For several years we have announced, with our recommendation, that we had found a positive cure for eczema: a simple skin wash, oil of wintergreen compounded with other healing ingredients.

Yet we know there are people right in this town who have eczema, and still have never tried this remedy.

We have, therefore, arranged with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special offer of a trial bottle at 25 cents instead of the $1.00 bottle as regularly sold. We offer this trial bottle with our recommendation and assurance that just as soon as the patient washes his itching skin, this mild liquid will take the itch away instantly.

CURING CATARRH

Accept Our Advice and Try this Remedy at Once.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane, inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is, complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe Rexall Muc-Tone will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form to give Rexall Muc-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that anyone could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store, John W. Carroll.

MACABEES HOLD

VALENTINE SOCIAL

Great Commander Present and Makes Interesting Talk.

The L. O. T. M. social, last night at the home of Mrs. Walter Garlick was the success of the season. Every social of the order has brought out larger crowds. The membership is increasing each month which shows that the ladies are enjoying themselves in a true Lady Macabee way. Quite a number were present from Belle Vernon. There was singing, recitations and games, the latter being in keeping with St. Valentine's Day.

One game in particular was where every lady was requested to draw a heart and write her name in the centre blindfolded. Of course there were hearts of all shapes and sizes. Some were even perfectly round with the ladies' name on the outside. Mrs. Provins of Belle Vernon proved herself the best artist present and carried off the prize, a very pretty china plate.

Past Great Commander of the State of Pennsylvania H. M. Ellsworth was present and delighted the ladies with her remarks on the growth of the order, in financial standing, in teaching and uplifting the daughters, wives and mothers. Lady Ellsworth dwelt on the religious precepts that are taught to every Lady Macabee. She pointed out that they could not help but be God fearing women and a credit to their community.

These socials are to be continued so long as present interest keeps up. The next social is a Martha Washington social at the home of Mrs. Martha Dunkerly, West Belle Vernon, Tuesday evening, February 22, to which all Lady Macabees and their friends are invited to come and spend a pleasant evening.

To Do Good.

You've got to live a Christian life if you expect to do any good. All the preaching in the world won't save a soul if you don't live the life, and if you do you don't need any preaching.—Billy Sunday, Evangelist, Chicago.

Man's Moral Destiny.

More and more the conviction grows that to teach men how to fulfill their moral destiny here is to fit them to fulfill it hereafter and that to do this is to bring down the New Jerusalem from heaven to earth.—Rev. Caleb S. S. Dutton, Unitarian, Brooklyn.

Need of Enthusiasm.

A need in the armament of man in the battle is enthusiasm. It is not only necessary to believe, but one must have the inspiration. Men do not gain fame by chance, but men do gain it by boundless enthusiasm.—Rev. D. G. Downey, Methodist, Chicago.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

COUNCIL MAY HAVE SYSTEM OVERHAULED

Parts of Fire Apparatus in Bad Condition, and Much Needs Repairs

WILL GET EXPERT HERE

The fire system in Charleroi will in all probability be given a general overhauling in the near future, as the result of action taken by council last night, to have the borough clerk, Ira L. Nickeson, write to Mr. Loomis, at Pittsburgh, the man who installed the apparatus, requesting him to come here to make an inspection and if necessary to conduct a general overhauling of the system. The clock which is in connection with the fire system is in bad shape, beside other parts, which are out of order.

President Frew was in the chair and other councilmen present were J. K. Hein, C. O. Frye, and Oscar Linn. Solicitor D. M. McCloskey presented a bill for attorney's fees of $162.90 the amount due for himself, and Carl E. Gibson, in the suit against the Charleroi Water company. The bill was ordered paid.

The street committee reported that on account of the snow they were unable to examine the paving on Lincoln avenue between First and Second streets, and consequently could not make any report. The contractors will receive $200 of the amount still due, 10 per cent to be held back.

The garbage question came up for discussion, there having been a number of complaints received about the way in which the garbage was being handled. No action was taken.

It was agreed to purchase a tax and municipal lien book. The real estate committee was given power to act in the matter of removing a small top shed on the borough building, so that the erection of the Pfeighardt block would not be interfered with.

Action was taken thanking the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company for the interest that had been taken in the fire department, and for the blowing of the plate glass whistle as an alarm.

The matter of having the walls in the engine room of the borough building toned up was placed in the hands of the real estate committee for action. President Frew was requested to serve in the various committees left vacant by the resignation of President Piersol.

A bill was presented by G. R. Speaks, for medical services rendered by Dr. J. B. Barth, after Mr. Speaks had been struck by a bolted on Sixth street, and injured. The matter was placed in the hands of the accounts and claims committee for investigation.

The treasurer's report for the month of December was read and accepted as follows:

Receipts for month.....$4,358.88
Disbursements.....3,712.18

Balance.....$678.65
Overdrawn from last balance.....201.11

Balance in treasury.....$472.54
The report of Burgess Risbeck for the month of January showed that there had been $41.30 in fines assessed, of which $25.30 had been paid, there being $18.00 in time served.

Tax Collector Mathias reported that for January taxes he had turned over to the treasurer $1,574.62. Ex-Tax Collector Parson reported that for

JUDGE M'ILVAINE ELUCIDATES LEGAL QUESTIONS RAISED

Hands Down Another Opinion Upon Brewery License Matters.

EXTENDS TIME FOR DECREE

Yesterday the Crescent brewery at Washington filed a withdrawal of its license application and the Washington brewing company has its application for withdrawal all ready to file. The Star brewery it is stated is likely to follow the same action today. These in connection with the Acme brewery at Bentleyville and the Independent brewery at Monongahela are the ones which were refused county license by Judge J. A. McIlvaine last week, and the action is presumably made for the purpose of taking out a State license.

In accordance with the informal rehearing given the three Washington breweries Saturday Judge McIlvaine has given another written opinion replying at length to each of the points made by the brewery attorneys for a reverse of his decree. The court refuses any further rehearing and gives the applicants until the 24th of this month to withdraw their applications. If this is not done the decree will be final refusing the licenses and the applicants will be debarred from a State license by reason of this refusal.

CRIMINAL COURT BEGINS ITS GRIND

Takes up the Hearing of Cases, Five Persons will be Tried for Homicide

Criminal court convened at Washington yesterday before both Judges McIlvaine and Taylor. The grand jury also reconvened, not having finished its business last week. There are six homicide cases to come before the courts, or five rather, as the case of Thomas Kinney for the murder of Wm. Adams of Charleroi has been continued to the May term of court. After the opening of court yesterday a number of cases were disposed of, and a long list was on the calendar for today.

Rev. J. H. Palmer, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church here, now located in Leechburg, arrived in Charleroi yesterday to make arrangements for moving his family to Leechburg. The members of the local church are arranging a reception for Rev. Palmer to be held on Thursday evening of this week.

Edgar Pearson is transacting business and visiting friends today in Pittsburg.

The winner of these ballots will not be announced until the close of the contest, but will be mailed direct to the lucky candidates. Work for yearly and long time subscriptions during this period harder than you have ever worked before.

Remember that this is the best offer that will be made during the contest.

SPECIAL OFFERS.

In today's issue the following special offers are announced and will be in effect during the dates as outlined below.

FEB. 14 TO FEB. 26 AT 10 P. M.

The special offer between the dates of Feb. 14 to Feb. 26 inclusive. Each and every candidate turning in $25 on subscription, either new or old, will be given an extra ballot good for 40,000 votes and all money will count on the "Three Competitive Ballots." The First Ballot is good for 100,000 votes, the second one is good for 75,000 votes and the third will be good for 50,000 votes. These ballots will be given over and above the regular scale.

FEB. 28 TO MARCH 5 INCLUSIVE.

The special vote between the dates of Feb. 28 and March 5, 25,000 extra with every $25 over and above the regular scale turned in on subscriptions.

MARCH 7 TO MARCH 12 INCLUSIVE.

The special vote between these dates will be 15,000 extra votes over and above the regular scale.

MARCH 14 TO MARCH 19 INCLUSIVE.

This will be the last offer during the contest. An extra ballot of 5,000 votes will be given with every $25 turned in. This is positively the last offer of any kind that will be made during the contest.

MARCH 21 TO MARCH 26.

No offers of any kind, just the regular scale on old and new subscribers.

BE SURE OF THE DATES.

By studying the dates you will see where your work will count the most on the special offers. Of course the advantage is the same for all, but each one can feel themselves individually benefited.

When you ask for a subscription you can show your friends how much more they can help you now than they can at a later date.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

Do not be mistaken when securing new subscriptions. An old subscriber is one that is receiving the paper through his newsdealer or on the Mail Publishing Co's mailing list. The slips will be verified each day and all mistakes will be rectified. Transferring subscriptions from one member of the family to another will not count as a new subscriber.

EVEN COST OF FUNERAL CAB HIRE BOOSTED

Man Can't Even Die Without Extra Expense Now as Result of Latest Move.

LOWEST PRICE $3.00 PER

Even the cost of dying has been raised in this vicinity. It isn't the doctors, whom people think make a fortune every trip, and it isn't the undertakers who charge enough; it's the liverymen—the fellows who furnish transportation for one's final journey and the mournful procession of friends when you shuffle off this mortal coil. The liverymen got together recently and in regular Standard Oil fashion boosted the prices for carriages so that now you have to pay $1.00 or $2.00 more than previously for each hearse or carriage.

The highest price listed on the card which has been circulated is for a trip to Beallsville from Charleroi—$9.00 per. And that's in advance except when the carriages are hired by the undertakers, whom the liverymen sort of trust. The lowest price is for a carriage to the depot, $3.00, and this has to be in the forenoon. If the carriage is desired in the afternoon it costs $4.00.

The prices vary according to the distance of the haul. That means if you want to be planted in the Charleroi cemetery it will not cost more than $5.00 per carriage unless there are some other technicalities that enter into the agreement, while if you and your mournful friends have to be transported to a much greater distance the insurance left your friends will have to be drawn upon to a greater degree.

The Charleroi liverymen are all in the trust. The limit to one carriage is four persons. The liverymen conscientiously make one concession; that is they will pay the bridge toll and ferryage—unless the carriage is empty.

INDICATIONS FOR SMALL VOTE HERE

Quietness Prevails at the Various Voting Precincts in the Borough

Election is rather quiet today, and indications are that there will be a small vote polled in the contests for the various borough offices.

There is considerable interest centering in the fight for justice of the peace and each candidate is out working hard for recognition. A close vote is predicted.

For the other offices of council, and school board there is somewhat of a fight on, and especially for school board is the contest waging a trifle warm.

INCREASING DEMAND FOR FARM LANDS

Many People Prefer County Sites to Town or City Real Estate

POULTRY RAISING POPULAR

The desirability of farm land in this section at the present time is most noticeable, and the increase in demand has been instrumental in boosting the values. There is more inquiry for farms than for town real estate of a corresponding value. A farm is sure of a quick sale in this territory when placed on the market providing the price asked is not out of reach of the ordinary individual.

To prove this condition may be cited the instance of a North Charleroi man who recently had some country property to dispose of. He advertised and the numerous inquiries that followed kept him busy.

In this county farm land is of more value than almost any of the surrounding counties unless it be Greene, because of the absence of the destructive coke ovens. The undermining of the land for coal has had its bad effects upon the farms, but even this has apparently not detracted much from the seeming value. The trend of the people is to get into the open where they feel more free. The raising of poultry is claiming the attention of many Charleroi people but there is not room enough in the town to raise chickens. The raising of live stock does not seem to be so profitable as farming and fruit growing in this district and consequently the farms are becoming more and more depopulated of cattle, sheep and hogs.

It has been argued that Pennsylvania furnishes as good farm land as any Western State and this is conclusively proved by some of the farmers residing in the neighborhood. This fact has had its effect upon the boosting of the values and increasing the demand for the farm property.

Women Practice Voting.

Under direction of the W. C. T. U. the women of Bellevue, Avalon and West View, in Allegheny county, will have a practice vote today. For this purpose a hall has been secured, polling booths erected according to regulation style, election officers appointed, and a quantity of specimen ballots secured. Over 1,000 notices have been sent out to the women of the community to turn out and vote for the local candidates to be elected today.

By means of this "practice vote" the women of that community will have an opportunity to get an insight into the electorate franchise from which they are debarred by reason of their sex. If enough of the women turn out to make a fair comparison, it will be interesting to note the result of this mock election. The belief is that a higher degree of intelligence will be exercised in the choice of the local officials than will be shown at the real election.

Rather Late

For so large a beneficiary of the protective tariff as Andrew Carnegie has been, his conversion to the tariff-revenue-only theory is somewhat amazing. Particularly is this true when all of Mr. Carnegie's immense fortune which enables him to give away many millions each year in philanthropic projects cut of the golden stream that flows annually into his coffers, was created solely by the tariff monopoly of which he was virtually at one time the sole possessor. But for the protective tariff the iron and steel industry could never have developed on the gigantic scale it has attained, nor would the great profits have been realized but for the special privileges conferred upon the industry by the same means.

Notwithstanding the protective tariff has been the means of colossal fortunes, and the iron and steel industry has become more or less of a monopoly, the protective tariff is an economic benefit, if the quickening of progress and advancement is the correct theory in the destiny of the human race. But for this artificial stimulation by the tariff the iron and steel industry, as well as many others, could never have developed to the magnitude nor in the space of time it did. With no protection European manufacturers had it within their power to break down all possible competition in this country. Without this development the millions of dollars and the vast army of workmen in the big industries would never have been employed.

The economic question involved in the tariff is whether it was better for this country to drift along the lines pursued by Oriental countries—China and India for example—in the development of natural resources, or apply modern and artificial methods to quicken and stimulate development. As a penalty for the protective tariff we have gigantic monopolies and colossal fortunes. As a recompense we have employment at good wages for millions of workmen who would otherwise be eking out a precarious existence from the soil with no markets for their products. The protective tariff is more than evenly balanced in the economic scale for the betterment of this country.

Amend the Law.

While it has been demonstrated that it is a serious proposition to get a local option law passed by the Legislature of this State, which is quite likely to require a constitutional amendment before it could become effective, it is quite possible to further regulate and restrict the liquor traffic. This can be done by amendments to the Brooks law, some of the most serious defects of which are pointed out by Judge J. A. McIlvaine, in an opinion handed down in the hearing of the brewery cases at Washington Saturday. Judge McIlvaine says:

If we are wrong in regard to the illegality of sales made by agents, such as have been made by the agents of these three applicants and the higher courts will so hold, then it behooves those who are in favor of the restriction and regulation rather than prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquor to seek to have the Brooks law reinforced by additional legislation:

First—There should be an act which should prohibit the court of quarter sessions from granting a license to brewers and distillers, which would enable them to sell to consumers, but their entire trade should be done under a license such as is now granted by the State treasurer, that is, they should only be allowed to sell to dealers licensed by the court of quarter sessions.

Second—An act should be passed limiting the sale by wholesale dealers to other dealers licensed by the court and to consumers that should apply at the place of business described in their license, and they should be prohibited from soliciting trade through agents from individual consumers and the minimum quantity which they could sell to any individual consumer should be enlarged. Judge Paxson in Nordstrom's appeal, makes use of this language:

"While it is a delicate matter to criticize the act of a co-ordinate department of the government we must be permitted to say that in our judgment the law in regard to wholesale licenses contains some very serious defects. We need to refer to but one, the provision that wholesale dealers may sell by the quart. It seems a perversion of terms to call a person who sells liquor by the quart a wholesale dealer. It is practically a retail traffic and of the worst character."

Third—An act should be passed prohibiting all clubs, associations or societies of whatsoever kind from selling or distributing by gift or otherwise among their members vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors, without first obtaining a license from the court of quarter sessions so to do, as provided in the act of Assembly which regulates the granting of retail licenses.

To this should be added an increase in the price of licenses to make them average at least $1,000. This is neither abnormally high nor prohibitive, inasmuch as the regulations restricting the traffic make the privilege more or less monopolistic. One thousand dollars for a business privilege that nets $12,000 to $25,000 a year profits is an exceedingly modest fee. Other States impose $1,000 for licenses, and such a fee would materially help out in reimbursing the court for the expenses entailed by reason of the evils of the traffic.

Beallsville

Mrs. W. B. Flick entertained a number of friends at her home on Tuesday complimentary to Mrs. Smith Frye of Charleroi, who is a guest at the H. H. Young home.

J. Girard of Ohio is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Martin-dell of near Beallsville.

Miss Anna Craven, who has been a guest of her sister, Miss Mollie Craven, and the Misses Lulu and Roberta Trew of Charleroi, for the past few days, returned to her home at this place, this week.

One of the severest snow storms of the winter struck this section last Friday and continued all Friday night. On Saturday some of the drifts were to a depth of 4 feet, making travel very hard, especially on the country roads. The mail carriers of this section experienced much difficulty in covering their entire routes.

John Miller of Kansas City, Mo., who has been a guest of his sister, Mrs. S. C. Cole, and other relatives and friends in the county, for the past four weeks, returned to his western home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves have returned to their home near Beallsville, after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Graves of Monongahela.

Revival service commenced at the Beallsville M. E. church on Sunday evening and will continue indefinitely. The services are in charge of the pastor, the Rev. O. B. Patterson.

We hope that Teddy, Jr. gets a good match. He seems to be the only quiet member of the family, besides Mrs. Roosevelt.

The county seat breweries are not desirous of State licenses, because their trade then would be practically nothing. Clubs in Washington will have to get their yellow joy water from some other climate, a fact due to make the county seat beersters unhappy.

It isn't fashion anymore to build air castles. Airships are the rage now.

Slipping and tripping, you see a car near. Promptly you hike down the ice-coated street. Then just as you do a particularly brilliant stunt sliding on your ear, some idiot yells, "That's right, wave your feet." Then with green air surrounding you and a big bump on your right gable you slip back home to burn good coal.

Many towns gain more notoriety because Mrs. Guinness has never been found there, Doc Cook is not in hiding there, and because they are not trying to get the Jeffries-Johnson fight, than many other towns are through their vain attempts to become noted.

The reason the reformers do not accomplish more is because they want so many different kinds of reform.

There must be a deal of borrowing going on in the Senate for there are only eighty-three cork screws to ninety-two Senators—Exchange.

"Drink Union Beer" says the Union Labor Journal. Much better advice would be to drink no beer. The most eminent medical authorities in the world now agree that beer is a poison which injures every human being who imbibes it—Washington Reporter.

An Embarrassing Moment.

The author of "Collections and Recollections" relates a personal experience of having said a "thing one would rather have left unsaid." Even after the lapse of twenty years, he adds the recollection of the sensations of the moment turns him hot with chagrin.

A remarkably pompous clergyman, a diocesan inspector of schools, once showed me a theme on a Scriptural subject written by a girl who was trying to pass from the rank of a pupil teacher to the rank of schoolmistress. The theme was full of absurd mistakes, over which the inspector laughed uproariously.

"Well, what do you think of that?" he inquired when I handed back the paper.

"Oh," said I in perfectly good faith, "the mistakes are bad enough, but the writing is far worse. It really is a disgrace."

"The writing? What, my writing?" said the inspector. "I copied the theme out myself."

"Old Hickory."

The following story is told of how General Andrew Jackson got his title of "Old Hickory." Captain William Allen, who was a dear neighbor of the general, messed with him during the Creek war. During the campaign the soldiers were moving rapidly to surprise the Indians and were without tents. A cold March wind came on, mingled with sleet, which lasted for several days. General Jackson got a severe cold, but did not complain, as he tried to sleep in a muddy bottom. One day he was out on a scout. Captain Allen and his brother, John, cut down a stout hickory tree, peeled off the bark and made a covering for the general, who was with difficulty persuaded to crawl under it. The next morning a drunken citizen entered the camp and, seeing the tent, kicked it over. As Jackson crawled from the ruins the toper cried: "Hello, Old Hickory! Come out of your bark and jine us in a drink."—Detroit News.

WOLVES AS ACTORS IN DANIEL BOONE

If wild animal training is not an actual "calling" it has many of the elements of irresistibility often attributed to vocations of educational, didactical or philanthropic nature. Last year when Mr. L. W. Clinton now playing the part of Daniel Boone was terribly mangled in an attack by the wolf Bob carried by the company, he said he would probably return to the company as soon as he was able. Though warned by the doctors at the hospital, Mr. Clinton insisted on returning to his company less than ten days after he had been torn by the "raw" wolf Bob. On last Monday night he fainted after having successfully performed with his pack of wolves. Again entering the cage Wednesday Mr. Clinton made a desperate effort to "break" the wolf which tore him, but his weak condition began to tell on him before he had unmailed and it was only the quick work of the other members of the company prevented him from being torn the second time.

These wolves will be seen with "Daniel Boone on the Trail" at the Coyle Theatre next Thursday evening.

With the Minstrels.

"De one am Morocco bound, an' de oddah am half calf."

THE NEW MASSAGE

A Novel Plan that has Proven
Its Worth Over and Over Again.

Beauty hints are always welcome reading, because women of today know that what we formerly called the marks of age, really are indications of complexions neglected. Massage and high grade skin foods and creams have worked a revolution in this respect. And no massage itself has been revolutionized by the invention of the Harlan Beauty Cup, which is a mechanical appliance working upon a gentle vacuum system, and has a marvelously beneficial effect by cleansing the pores and manipulating the skin textures more evenly and better than is possible by hand.

When it is stated that the manufacturers of the Beauty Cup are also the makers of Crown Cream, users of that excellent face cream will understand why implicit confidence can be placed in any statement concerning the other toilet device. Crown Cream is literally without a rival, and it differs from other preparations for the reason that its beautifying powers are so great, that many women use it without any massage whatever. Used in connection with the Beauty Cup, however, the effects produced are not only highly pleasing, but very quickly secured. Crown Cream is sold by every dealer everywhere, for 50c a jar, and the price of the Beauty Cup is also half a dollar. If your dealer does not keep these goods they will be sent prepaid by the Harlan Mfg. Co., Toledo, Ohio, on receipt of the price. Give your dealer's name in writing to the company.

A Large Boulder Fell in Front of a Passenger Train Going at Fifty Miles an Hour.

And it was almost miraculous that everyone of the two hundred passengers were not crushed to death.

When you read such startling headlines in the daily paper did you ever stop to think how many lives are being crushed out daily by stones in the bladders of hundreds of human beings because no remedy was ever known to medical science that would remove them until bloodline was discovered; and since bloodline has been found to be a specific for this terrible affliction, it has had the most phenomenal sale throughout the East and West, of any remedy ever known. Thousands of bottles having been sold in a single day in many of the large cities.

If you are suffering with stone in the bladder, aching pains over hips, backache, sediment or deposit in urine, irritation of the bladder, pain in urinating, rheumatism, uric acid in the blood, sudden stoppage of the urine, highly colored or milky white urine, pass blood or mucous in urine, retention of urine, straining after urinating, thick or sluggish urine, scystitis inflammation of bladder, catarrh of bladder, or bowels, puffiness under eyes, voracious appetite, thirst, gall stones, gravel, pain in urethra, swollen ankle, dimmed vision, specks before the eyes, scanty urine, frequent calls, mouth dry, biliousness, dribbling, lumbago, weakness, loss of flesh, irregular heart action, ulceration of the bladder, skin pale, waxy and dry, bad odor of perspiration, don't delay, but send to your druggist and get a bottle of bloodline at once; if he does not keep bloodline, you can secure a six weeks' treatment, six bottles, for $2.50 or single bottles 50c, trial bottle and booklet 10c, from The Bloodline Laboratories, Boston, Mass.

It cures by drawing all germ life and poisons to the surface of the skin and destroying them leaving the skin clean and healthy. Piper Bros.

As usual, the children were very hungry and were waiting patiently for father to fill the plates and pass them around. Father, however, was busily engaged in conversation and missed little Marion. After every one had begun eating the child grew desperate and interrupted his father:

"Say, papa, I've an awful good appetite today if you'll only give me a chance to use it."—Woman's Home Companion

CURES REMOVE DOUBT ABOUT ECZEMA CURE

Read What Your Druggist Says About Oil of Wintergreen

For several years we have announced, with our recommendation, that we had found a positive cure for eczema; a simple skin wash, oil of wintergreen compounded with other healing ingredients.

Yet we know there are people right in this town who have eczema, and still have never tried this remedy.

We have, therefore, arranged with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special offer of a trial bottle at 25 cents instead of the $1.00 bottle as regularly sold.

We offer this trial bottle with our recommendation and assurance that just as soon as the patient washes his itching skin, this mild liquid will take the itch away instantly.

Where the Hippopotamus Lurks.

Herd of hippopotamuses are not found everywhere in central Africa. They stick to the swampy shores overgrown with the papyrus plant, which affords them cover by day when they come out to rest. At night they feed on land, sometimes walking long distances away from the lake or river in search of palatable herbs. The hippopotamus is a great eater. A cow hippopotamus stays with her calf until the young one gets strong enough to walk and swim.—Exchange.

CURING CATARRH

Accept Our Advice and Try this Remedy at Once.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane, inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is, complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe Rexall Muc-Tone will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form to give Rexall Muc-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that anyone could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.

MACABEES HOLD

VALENTINE SOCIAL

Great Commander Present and Makes Interesting Talk.

The L. O. T. M. social, last night at the home of Mrs. Walter Garlick was the success of the season. Every social of the order has brought out larger crowds. The membership is increasing each month which shows that the ladies are enjoying themselves in a true Lady Macabee way. Quite a number were present from Belle Vernon. There was singing, recitations and games, the latter being in keeping with St. Valentine's Day.

One game in particular was where every lady was requested to draw a heart and write her name in the centre blindfolded. Of course there were hearts of all shapes and sizes. Some were even perfectly round with the ladies' name on the outside. Mrs. Provins of Belle Vernon proved herself the best artist present and carried off the prize, a very pretty china plate.

Past Great Commander of the State of Pennsylvania H. M. Ellsworth was present and delighted the ladies with her remarks on the growth of the order, in financial standing, in teaching and uplifting the daughters, wives and mothers. Lady Ellsworth dwelt on the religious precepts that are taught to every Lady Macabee. She pointed out that they could not help but be God fearing women and a credit to their community.

These socials are to be continued so long as present interest keeps up. The next social is a Martha Washington social at the home of Mrs. Martha Dunkerly, West Belle Vernon, Tuesday evening, February 22, to which all Lady Macabees and their friends are invited to come and spend a pleasant evening.

To Do Good.

You're got to live a Christian life if you expect to do any good. All the preaching in the world won't save a soul if you don't live the life, and if you do you don't need any preaching.—Billy Sunday, Evangelist, Chicago.

Man's Moral Destiny.

More and more the conviction grows that to teach men how to fulfill their moral destiny here is to fit them to fulfill it hereafter and that to do this is to bring down the New Jerusalem from heaven to earth.—Rev. Caleb S. S. Dutton, Unitarian, Brooklyn.

Need of Enthusiasm.

A need in the armament of man in the battle is enthusiasm. It is not only necessary to believe, but one must have the inspiration. Men do not gain fame by chance, but men do gain it by boundless enthusiasm.—Rev. D. G. Dowber, Methodist, Chicago.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists.
